

Audit Senior

COMPANY PROFILE Miller Cooper, the 10th largest accounting firm in Chicago, has proudly served entrepreneurial, middle market businesses since 1919. Excellence, unparalleled client service and a customized approach to each client's priorities distinguish Miller Cooper as a trusted resource of each organization we serve. You are competing in an industry with unlimited possibilities. At Miller Cooper you can find challenging opportunities in an environment that rewards performance. As one of the largest independent accounting and consulting firms in Chicago, our goal is to continue to attract the best and brightest people in the industry. We believe your success is our success.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Conduct and supervise all aspects of field work of audit and accounting engagements.
- Supervise staff accountants and prepare staff evaluation reports.
- Complete all financial statements, tax returns and special services
- Review all workpapers, financial statements and tax returns before submission to manager/principal for further review
- Look for opportunities to provide additional services to clients and prepare management advisory letters
- Plan engagements including preparation of audit programs and time budgets to achieve quality and efficiency goals

QUALIFICATIONS:

- 3-5 years of audit experience in public accounting with no breaks into industry is required
- CPA strongly preferred
- Experience auditing large manufacturers with consolidations and international exposure
- Experience supervising and mentoring staff auditor
- Strong communication skills, verbal and written
- Analytical, problem solving abilities
- Flexibility to adapt to new situations
- Ability to prioritize effectively
- Interest in working as part of a team

Apply by emailing your resume to kschermer@millercooper.com